

Opt-out process for employers

Our approach to self-insurance is coming.
Do you already have an ill-health insurance policy in place?

...

YES

...

Come to the Forum on 27 November to learn more and ask questions.

...

Your existing insurance policy with L&G will remain in place until midnight on 31 March 2026, meaning you're covered throughout the transition to our new self-insurance approach. If your policy expires before then, we recommend you extend current arrangements to 31 March 2026.

...

You're now covered under our new approach to self-insurance. This will come into effect automatically on 1 April 2026.

...

...

NO

...

You don't need to do anything. Come to the Forum on 27 November to learn more and ask questions.

...

You're now covered under our new approach to self-insurance. This will come into effect automatically on 1 April 2026.

Wish to opt out for any reason?

You won't be covered for the cost of providing ill-health and death benefits. Please let us know your alternative approach via our web form at <https://herts.self-insurance.co.uk/>